Never be afraid to do what's right, especially if the well-being of a person or animal is at stake. Society's punishments are small compared to the wounds we inflict on our soul when we look the other way.

Martin Luther King, Jr.

Theodore Roosevelt

The greatness of a nation and its moral progress can be judged by the way its animals are treated.

Mahatma Gandhi

Be ashamed to die until you have won some victory for humanity.

Horace Mann

All that is necessary for the triumph of evil is that good men do nothing.

Edmund Burke

Never doubt that a small group of thoughtful, committed citizens can change the world. Indeed, it's the only thing that ever has.

Margaret Mead

Love and compassion are necessities, not luxuries. Without them, humanity cannot survive.
